

World Cocoa
Foundation

Henrietta Baaba Wood

Baaba Wood is the administrative Assistant for the WCF's African Cocoa Initiative Project. She provides administrative support to the Chief of Party and other members of the team.

Her expertise in office administration, information and records management and customer service comes from years of experience with institutions such as North Ridge Lyceum, the Buyasoul Foundation and the Information Services Department, Ministry of Information.

Baaba holds a BA in French and Linguistics and a Diploma in Business French. She is also fluent in French.