

World Cocoa
Foundation

Josephine Dadzie

Josephine Dadzie works on the day-to-day administrative work for WCF-ECHOES and other WCF education projects as well as assists in their implementation. She brings over 7 years experience of office and project administration having worked for Tieso Ghana Ltd, Constructs llc and Knutsford University College, Ghana. Complementing her administrative experience are over 5 years of youth development work as a part-time volunteer Director for event management for The HuD Group, an international youth development organization.

Josephine holds a BSc. in Natural Resources Management from Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, a Project Management Professional (PMP) Certificate and working knowledge in finance from Ghana Stock Exchange Securities courses.