

Bordeaux, le 1er mars 2013

Dear All,

Regarding significant development of Touton Sustainable Programs and efforts undertaken by Touton towards a more sustainable supply chain in cocoa and coffee, we are pleased to inform you about Joseph Larrose's appointment in the position of "Head of Sustainable Sourcing" of the Touton Group.

Joseph has spent his last two years in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, as the person in charge of Touton's Sustainable programs for West Africa. He is, now, back in Touton's Head Office, in Bordeaux, France, to take over his new responsibility.

In the continuity of the efforts committed over 2012, the recruitment of additional employees is scheduled in 2013, in Ivory Coast, Ghana, Vietnam and Madagascar, to pursue the development of our social programs benefiting farmers and their communities.

Please accord Joseph your full cooperation as Touton growth in the development of sustainable programs.

Please accept the expression of our sincere greetings.

Sincerely yours,

Patrick de Boussac
Président Directeur Général

Olivier Lieutard
Directeur Général Délégué