

World Cocoa
Foundation

---

Matthew Travis

Matthew Travis is the Operations Associate at the World Cocoa Foundation. He oversees the daily functions of the office and provides operational support for the DC team.

Previously, Matthew worked in the Entertainment industry, assisting in concert and festival productions in over 30 countries, overseeing diverse cultural and multi-lingual crews. His development experience stems from time in Liberia with Franciscan Works where he cooperated with government ministries, international and local NGOs and community members to enhance the organization's programming and projects.

Matthew holds BAs in History and Politics from Brandeis University.