

World Cocoa
Foundation

---

Victoria Woolner

Victoria Woolner is the CocoaAction Associate at the World Cocoa Foundation. She provides support to WCF's CocoaAction strategy, with a particular focus on community development programming in West Africa.

Victoria first became interested in sustainability and international development through a direct research program in Costa Rica with the School for Field Studies. She holds a BA in Environmental Studies from Saint Michael's College, with minors in Sociology and History.